The Converse All-Canadian Awards Night

The Sheraton Halifax was once again the site for Thursday night's Converse All-Canadian Awards Night to salute the outstanding players of 1990-91.

J.D. Jackson from the University of British Columbia was named the winner of the Mike Moser Award as the outstanding player in Canadian University Basketball. Jackson, an All-Canadian for the third time, was also named MVP of the Canada West conference, led the nation in scoring averaging 27.1 points per game, scoring 57 per cent of his field goal attempts and was an 84% shooter from the foul line.

Also named as First Team All-Canadians were: John Stiefelmeyer, University of Western Ontario; Spencer MacKay, University of Victoria; Nick Arvanitis, Concordia University; and Joey Vickery, Brandon University. Second team All-Canadians named were Eric Bridgeland, University of Manitoba; Peter Gordon, University of Prince Edward Island; Richard Bella, St. Francis Xavier University; Tim Mau, University of Guelph; and Norm Hann, Laurentian University. Sean VanKoughnett of the University of Waterloo was named Freshman of the Year and winner of the Peter Mullins Award. John Dore of Concordia and Bruce Enns of the University of British Columbia, and last year's winner, were co-winners of the Stu Aberdeen Trophy as Coach of the Year.

Stiefelmeyer was the outstanding player in the Ontario Universities Athletic Association this season leading the Mustangs to first place in their section. John is a four time All-Canadian and winner of the Mike Moser Award in 1990.

MacKay was a second team All-Canadian in 1989-90 and was chosen for the third time to the dream team. The centre averaged 24.5 points per game and grabbed 9.7 rebounds per contest.

Arvanitis led the defending national champion Stingers to the OUAA East title in his first selection to the All-Canadian team. He averaged 19.6 points per game along with 6.7 rebounds.

Vickery, is an All-Canadian for a third time, averaging 22.2 points per game for the Bobcats leading them to a first place finish in GPAC. He shot 83.9 per cent from the foul line and averaged 4.3 rebounds per game.

Bridgeland, last season's Freshman of the Year averaged 23.8 points per game in leading the Bisons in scoring for the second year in a row. He also topped GPAC in scoring this season. He averaged 87.4 per cent from the foul line.

Gordon, three time MVP in the AUAA, is also a third time All-Canadian. Gordon led UPEI to a second place finish in the AUAA with close to a 20 point scoring average and an 87.6 foul shooting average.

Bella, completed his second year at St.F.X. with his second AUAA all-star selection and his first All-Canadian appearance. He averaged 10 rebounds and points per game for the X-men.

Mau, was a first team All-Canadian in 1989-90 and the CIAU Freshman of the Year in 1988-89. He averaged 11.7 rebounds per game for the Gryphons.

Hann was second in the nation in scoring with a 26.5 average. He was the country's top free throw shooter with an 89.4 percentage.

VanKoughnett, averaged 21.7 points per game for Waterloo and stunned Western with a late-season 49 point performance. He was second in the country with an 88.7 free throw percentage.

Dore coached the Stingers to the CIAU title last year and on to another Eastern Division title of the OUAA this year, all in only his second year as head coach. Enns led the UBC Thunderbirds to the CWUAA championship in his sixth year as head coach.

THE FINAL EIGHT

Acadia

After finishing third in the tough AUAA division, Acadia upset nationally ranked UPEI in the semifinals and #3 ranked St. F.X. in the championship final. Acadia will be led by 6'7" senior Ted Byrne, Kevin Lee who was among the top rebounders (10.1 rpg) in the CIAU, the shooting of Danny Eveleigh and the ball handling of Eric James.

Brandon

Brandon once again makes the trip to Halifax after finishing first in GPAC with a 15-3 record and defeating Manitoba in their conference final. Bobcats will look for leadership from All-Canadian Joey Vickery, the accurate shooting of David Nackoney (68.4 %, second best in the CIAU), and the rebounding of newcomer Steve Maslek.

British Columbia

Compiling a 15-5 regular season record, and continued on to defeat Victoria 2 games to 0 in their best of three final. The Thunderbirds will on this year's CIAU outstanding player, J.D. Jackson, and Al Lalonde from the guard positions and 6'6 forward Derek Christiansen who finished third in the CIAU in shooting accuracy (63.3 %).

Concordia

Concordia, last year's champions, are back again in 1991 to defend their CIAU title. They finished their regular season in first place with a 13-2 record and have a very balanced attack. Key performers for the Stingers will be All-Canadian Nick Arvanitis, 6'8" centre Dino Perin and guard Michael Cohee (14.7 ppg).

Guelph

Finishing the regular season in first place in the OUAA West division, the Gryphons return to Halifax as one of this year's wild card teams after losing to Western in their conference championship. Leading the attack for Guelph will be slam master Eric Hammond and All-Canadian Tim Mau at the forward positions while court general Ray Darling will run the offence.

Laurentian

Finishing first in the OUAA Central division with a 11 - 4 record, Laurentian is involved in the championship tournament for the first time since 1978. The Voyaguers are a fairly young team and will rely on the top free throw shooter in the CIAU and second leading scorer, All-Canadian Norm Hahn.

Victoria

This year's second wild card entry, the Vikings finished second in the Canada West division with a 15-5 record. All-Canadian Spencer McKay will be a dominant force both on the boards and in the offensive zone. Shooting guard Tom Johnson (22.2 ppg) will provide the outside threat while David McIntosh will direct the offence.

Western

Western finished second in the OUAA West with a 12 - 2 record and advanced to Halifax with a 83-80 victory over Guelph in their championship game. The Mustangs attack will be led by All-Canadian John Stiefelmeyer, shooting guard James Green (18.9 ppg) and 6'6" forward Peter Vandebovencamp who has returned after a year's absence.
